SUMMER READING
Add color, culture, and diversity to your summer when you join our Summer Reading Challenge.

BOOK CLUBS
Our lively online book discussions will keep you energized and excited about reading.

ART CAMPS
Kids and teens can meet and work with professional artists while making their own art.

DRIVE-IN MOVIES
Motor into the nostalgic days of the outdoor theater as our parking lot is transformed for in-car screenings this summer.
This summer, the Eisenhower Library plans on taking full advantage of the weather and offering you a number of outdoor programs, in addition to more virtual activities.

Films are definitely a theme! In June, July, and August, we’ll be hosting a series of drive-in movies. Bring some popcorn and join us from the comfort of your vehicle in June for the classic, Singin’ in the Rain, in July for Despicable Me, and in August for the modern crowd-pleaser, Knives Out.

We're continuing the Hollywood theme with a new virtual Hollywood book club, and online programs on Hollywood stars and starlets with film historian Dr. Annette Bochenek.

For residents of Norridge and Harwood Heights, check out Hoopla and our new service, Kanopy, to download movies to watch at home or from your mobile device. You can find classics, comedies, and children’s films and shows on Hoopla, in addition to ebooks, digital audiobooks, and music. Be sure to check out Hoopla’s “Not on Netflix” category. Find award-winning documentaries, classic movies, and independent films in Kanopy.

Make sure to check out our weekly Facebook film screenings. You can watch along with other film enthusiasts on our Facebook page. We’re going to be retiring this program soon, so make sure to check it out before it goes away.

You can also still check films and tv shows out from the library collection. Stop by and browse, call us for curbside pickup, or ask for a delivery if you live in Norridge or Harwood Heights.

We hope to help you make this summer a fun one!

SIDEWALK CHALK DRAWING

FRIDAYS, JUNE 11, JULY 09 & AUGUST 13, 10:00 AM–12:00 PM

What's better than drawing on the sidewalk on a summer day? You bring the concepts, we'll supply the chalk. Plan on a half hour of socially distanced drawing time on the library sidewalks. Please reserve only one spot per group or family each month.

SIDEWALK BOOK SALES

SATURDAYS, JULY 24 & AUGUST 21, 11:00 AM–3:00 PM

We're taking our book sales outdoors this summer. Drop by the library on July 24th to find great deals on books, movies, music, and more for adults. Then return on August 21st to pick up books for kids and young adults. Remember to wear your masks and keep socially distant.
From our Summer Reading Challenge and drive-in movie series, to sidewalk sales and chalk art programs, we’re making it an Eisenhower summer. Look for even more outdoor events for kids, teens, and adults.

SUMMER READING 2021: COLOR YOUR WORLD
EISENHOWERLIBRARY.ORG/SUMMERREAD
Add color, culture, and diversity to your reading this summer when you join our Summer Reading Challenge.

Use the summer reading website and mobile app, Beanstack, to track your reading progress, earn badges, redeem prizes, and write reviews. Families can all sign in under one account for easy tracking of the books you read.

If you can’t access the Beanstack website or app, give us a call at 708-867-7828 and we’ll help you get registered.

While supplies last, you’ll earn your first prize just by registering. It’s a sweet canvas tote bag featuring artwork by children’s book illustrator, Rafael López along with a set of fabric markers to color your tote bag however you like.

When you register, you’ll also receive a Summer Reading yard sign. Place the sign in your yard to proudly announce your status as a superstar reader. Share photos of your colored tote bag and yard sign on social media with the hashtag #IkeSummerReading.

MOVIES IN THE PARKING LOT
